

CGS Workshop on RCR Instruction

Pre-Meeting Seminar, Annual Meeting

Council of Graduate Schools

Washington, DC

December 8, 2004

(Sessions are morning and afternoon.)

AGENDA

I. Introduction

- ✚ Mark Frankel (AAAS): Importance and goals of RCR.

II. ORI's Position on RCR

- ✚ Larry Rhoades (ORI): ORI's Resource Development Program—resources produced and future directions.

III. Examples of Approaches for Teaching RCR

- ✚ Frank Macrina (Virginia Commonwealth University): Teaching strategies and organizational approaches to RCR training.

BREAK

IV. A Graduate Dean's Experience with RCR Instruction

- ✚ Paul Tate (CGS Dean in Residence): Interactive discussion exhibiting methods of teaching RCR that incorporate ethics and the reasoning skills required for ethical decision-making.

V. Interactive Exercises on Administrative Issues in Integrating RCR Training for Graduate Students

- ✚ A Deans Round-Table: Discussions of specific issues associated with establishing and implementing a program of RCR instruction at universities.

VI. Summary and Conclusion